1 OHCHR Visits Dataset

1.1 Dataset Description

The OHCHR visits dataset contains detailed information about travel by high-level officials within the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights from 1998–2019. The dataset captures travel by three primary officials: the High Commissioner, the Deputy High Commissioner, and the Assistant Secretary General for Human Rights.

1.2 Data Collection Methodology

The data collection relied on multiple sources, listed below. We describe the search process in the main article.

1. OHCHR Document Database: Systematic search of 5,523 documents including reports, country reports, status updates, statements, news, press releases, press briefing notes, and media advisories produced by the OHCHR and its senior officials.
2. UN News Database: Complementary searches using keywords including “high commissioner & visit,” “high commissioner & trip,” “human rights chief & visit,” and combinations of official names with “visit” and “mission.”
3. Annual Reports: Two types of annual reports provided supplementary information:
 - Reports to the General Assembly (coded as A/Session#/), covering August to July
 - Reports to the Human Rights Council, covering December to November

1.4 Visit Type Classification

The dataset distinguishes between two types of travel:

- Official Visits: Travel involving high-level talks with government officials about human rights issues specific to the state visited. These visits may include conference attendance but feature substantive bilateral discussions.
- Conference-Only Visits: Travel solely to attend conferences, workshops, or seminars about broad human rights issues without publicly disclosed high-level talks with government officials of the host state. These visits are primarily to Western Europe and other OECD countries.
